

FIRE PREVENTION FORM 640 TEMPORARY STORAGE FOR LAND APPLICATION

Property owners or tenants engaged in land application of mulch on agricultural land shall submit this form to the Fire District when temporary pile storage will exceed 5,000 cubic yards upon any parcel. This form shall be completed by the property owner where the material is being stored or the authorized operator of the agricultural operation that is storing the material.

The completed form may be submitted via email at fireprevention@ventura.org or via US Mail at the address above.

APN: ____ - 0 - ____ - ____ - ____ - ____

Property Location: _____
Address Street Name City

Property Owner: _____

Business/Tenant Name (if applicable): _____

Contact Name: _____ Phone #: _____

Date amount of storage will exceed 5,000 cubic yards: _____

Estimated date that material will be removed or land applied: _____

Amount of material in storage (cubic yards): _____

The undersigned property owner or operator is hereby providing notification to the Fire District that temporary piles of mulch, intended for land application, will be stored upon the parcel indicated above for a period of time exceeding 30 days. Temporary pile storage shall comply with the Ventura County Fire Code (VCFC) and Ventura County Environmental Health Division regulations. Reference: VCFC; Fire District Standard 516; Ventura County Ordinance Code.

By: _____
Print Name Signature

Date: _____ (Property Owner Operator)